—Wm. F. Brossia gave the Journal a subscription call Monday.

—The Occasional Club called on Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Barton last Friday evening and demanded food and entertainment which was cheerfully furnished by the host and hostess. The vocal selections which were a part of the entertainment were furnished by a direct descendant of Caruso, assisted by lesser lights in the musical world, and were highly pleasing to the near neighbors.

DO AWAY WITH THE BLIND COMMISSION.

Under a bill which has already passed the House of Representatives the work of the Blind Relief Commission would be done in the future by the Probate Judge.

This is a very wise change which should have been made long ago.

—Jacob Schramm was the Sunday guest of William F. Brossia and family.

KEEPS HIM BUSY.

Chas. W. Young pleaded guilty on Saturday morning in Judge C. R. Nearing's court to non-support of his minor child and was sentenced to serve six months in the Toledo work house. Sentence was suspended on condition that he pay $1.50 a week towards the support of his child. The latter is with the mother in Bairdstown. Young is also under sentence in the Seneca county court for non-support. Sentence given there to the penitentiary was suspended on condition that he pay $1.50 a week for the support of his child by another marriage. So he has to raise $3 a week now. Officer I. L. Hankey brought him back from Tiffin after he had been sentenced there. He is not at liberty, under his parole, to go farther away from Tiffin than fifty miles.
